FINGAL

Fingal, established in 1827 as a convict station, lies in the heart of the Fingal Valley. Sheltered between Stacks Bluff to the north and the Eastern Tiers to the south, this is a town of beautifully intact heritage and proud rural traditions.

DISCOVER FINGAL

Travel inland from the coast, via St Marys, to visit Fingal. Pick up a map from the Neighbourhood House when you arrive and explore the town on a self-guided walking tour of Fingal's historic buildings. Then, pack a picnic lunch and visit the Evercreech Forest Reserve, where you'll encounter the world's tallest white gum trees—the 90-metre high White Knights—or take the 15-minute drive to Mathinna Falls—a collection of stunning cascades located a short walk from the car park.
